

VOISIN LAW

Recognition for Voisin's Partner at Citywealth's Powerwomen Awards | 1

Voisin Law is proud to have a 'powerwoman' on its team of lawyers.

Kate Anderson, Partner in charge of Voisin's Banking and Funds practice areas has been ranked among the top International Powerwomen, a prestigious listing by Citywealth.

The ranking recognises the leading female power players within the international community, those leading businesses, directing multinational teams, or responsible for considerable P&Ls.

Kate advises on the establishment of investment vehicles ranging from single investor and corporate group structures to retail collective investment funds.

Her clients certainly rate her saying she 'has developed a reputation for excellence in her fields of expertise' and what marks her out most from her peers 'is her determination to continually develop her skills, knowledge and performance', believing she 'will be a key driver of the future direction of her firm, the sector and the island.'

Voisin Law's Managing Partner Ian Strang said, "We're extremely proud of Kate's achievements and her ranking in this prestigious list reinforces her position as a leader in her field."

Voisin Law has been at the heart of legal matters since 1869.

You can see the full list of Powerwomen here....International Powerwomen Top 100 2019.